

Don't own crypto currency? Here's how to contribute to Hive.

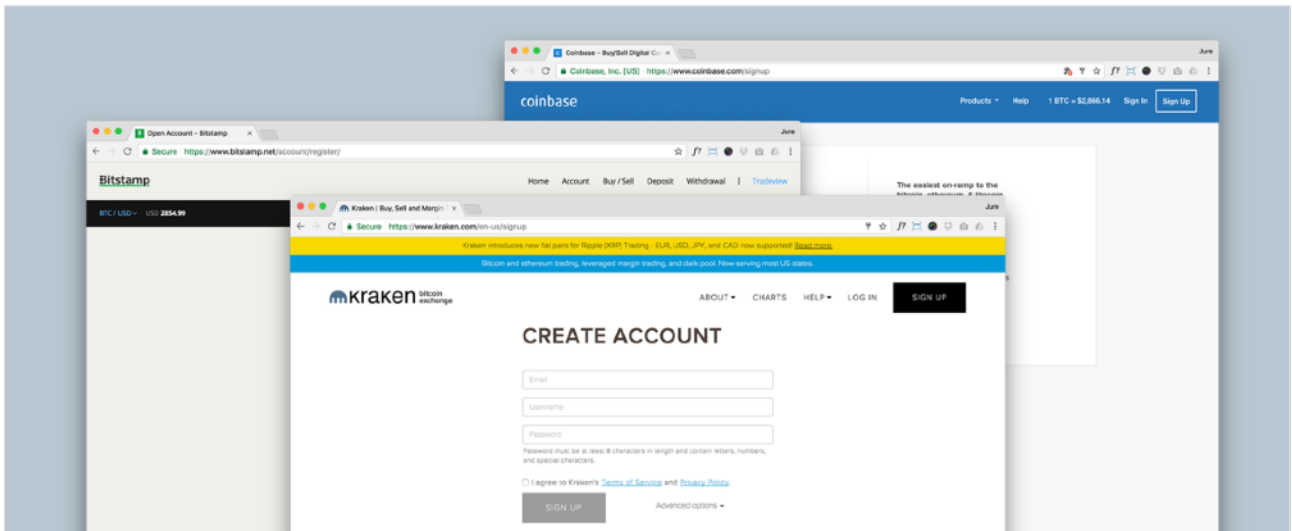

Step 1

Go to a renowned exchange like www.bitstamp.net, www.coinbase.com, www.kraken.com, etc.

Step 2

Open an account, following the instructions and verification procedure.*

Step 3

Upload your funds to your exchange trading account (by bank transfer, credit card, etc.).

 You need a copy of your passport/ID card and a utility bill not older than 3 months. Verification can take up to 3 weeks to complete. If you require any assistance with the process, please contact us at info@hive-project.net.*

Step 4

Buy your cryptocurrency: Bitcoin (XBT) or Ether (ETH).

or

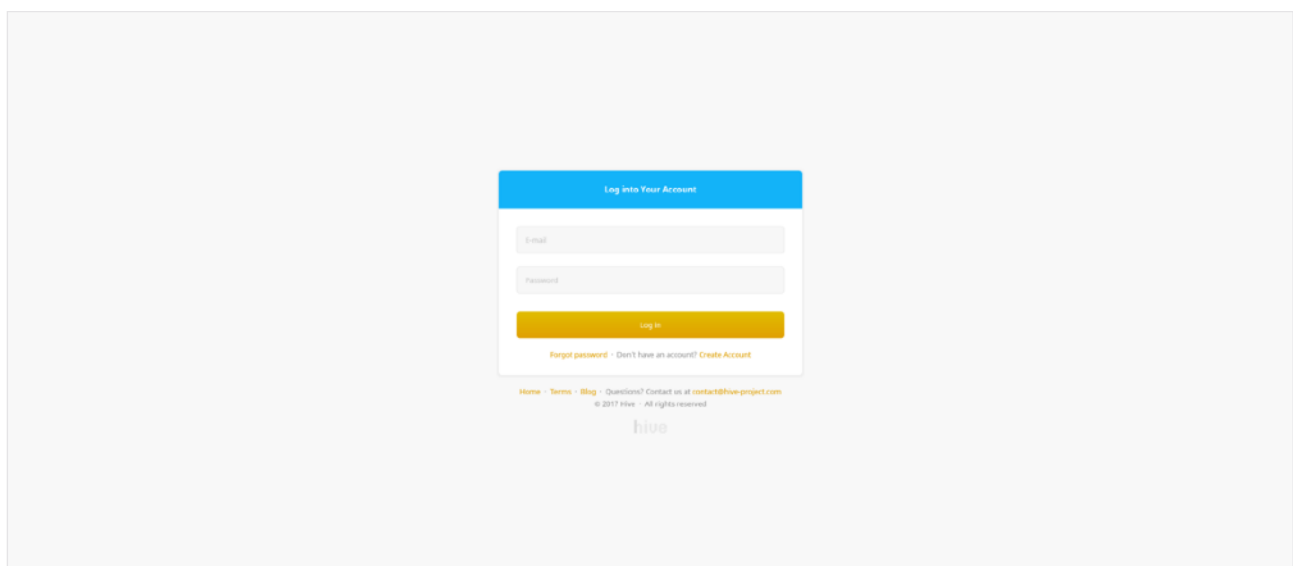

Step 5

Go to Hive's site and register.

Step 6

When your account is confirmed, log-in and you will be presented with the Hive dashboard.

Step 7

You will find an account number for each currency (BTC or ETH) on the dashboard. You will be able to use this account to invest in Hive.

The screenshot shows the Hive dashboard with a navigation bar at the top containing 'Dashboard', 'Transaction History', 'Account Address', and 'User 1234'. Below the navigation bar, there's a section titled '02 INVEST IN HIVE'. This section is divided into two columns: 'Investing with Bitcoin' and 'Investing with Ether'. Each column displays a text box for the respective account address, followed by a table of transaction history. Red arrows point to the address boxes in both columns.

Step 8

Send the value to the account number you are given. Use a private wallet (such as www.myetherwallet.com) or exchange transfer.

Step 9

Congratulations, you are now a contributor to the Hive community! Your HVN tokens will be sent to your Hive wallet soon after the ICO ends.
